WELCOME

Dear Competitors, Parents and Friends,

On Behalf of the Purdue Ballroom Dance Club and Team, we would like to welcome you to the 11th Annual Purdue Ballroom Classic. We are glad you are here as we look forward to a day filled with fun, laughter, friendship and wonderful dancing.

Ballroom dancing was first introduced to Purdue University as a class for credit, PES113 (1989-1992) by a Dance Department faculty member, Carol Cunningham. In 1992, when funding was cut for its curriculum, Kirsten Thole, the former teaching assistant of PES113, started The Purdue Ballroom Dance Club as a recreational ballroom dancing community. The club consisted of 40 members. Through the years this club grew to over 200 members.

In 1996, through the inspiring efforts of Aaron Altschul and Yuehwern Yih (our current faculty advisor), The Purdue Ballroom Dance Competition Team was realized. There were 15 couples on the team that first semester. Our first coach was Mr. Wayne Applegate. Today, our team consists of over 140 members and has recently been renamed The Purdue Latin and Ballroom Dance Competition Team and Club. The name change came with the realization that “ballroom” was not always interpreted to include the latin dances. This team is also proud to hold several National titles, and many national finalists have remained on the team including Yuehwern Yih, Daniel Dilley, Tze Chiam, Rose Ravelo, Jong Char, Annie Moy, David Zage, and Rushika Perera. We are also proud of Eduardo Torres and Cristina Acevedo, the first alumni of our team to become United States American Rhythm Professionals. Our beginner and intermediate team members strive on a daily basis to achieve excellence in their dancing. They are the future of this team, and I can honestly say, we are looking at a great future.

However, we won't be here today if not for all the friends we have made through the last 11 years of inter-collegiate dancing. We thank all our friends from universities and colleges throughout the Mid-West for all these years of support and friendship. Dancing would not be the same without you and we are happy you are here with us today.

Welcome to all our parents, family, friends and spectators. Your support with loud cheering and calling out the names of your favorite couples and colleges provides the energy and encouragement to all our dancers as they compete for their titles. Your presence and financial support of our dancing make this day possible.

Dear adjudicators and staff, you have traveled far to be here. Your excellence in the field inspires us and your presence endorses the importance of our team and this event in the larger ballroom dancing community in the United States. We thank you for being here.

Last but not least, we thank the staff of the Indianapolis Ballroom Company/Fred Astaire Dance Studio for traveling every week to be here to coach our team. We know that your time is valuable and hence, your continued support of our team means more to us than you may ever know.

With that said, good luck to all our competitors and “Let the dancing begin!”

Rushika Perera (Purdue Ballroom Classic Competition Coordinator 2008)

Gregory Day and Tommye Giacchino are full time professional ballroom dancers. Together, they have reached the pinnacle of dancing, winning multiple U.S. Titles as well as the “World Invitational Exhibition” title at the most prestigious of all Ballroom competitions: The British Open which is more commonly referred to as “Blackpool”. Over the last few years, millions of people have watched the pair as featured soloists on the PBS Broadcast “Championship Ballroom Dancing” and “America’s Ballroom Challenge”. Gregory and Tommye toured worldwide multiple times each year, performing throughout all of Europe, Asia, and North America. This critically acclaimed duo has had the privilege of performing for royalty, received standing ovations from arenas of over 20,000 people, toured as guest artists with some of the top ballet and jazz companies in the world, performed to music written exclusively for them, and performed with some of the most prestigious symphonies in the world.

Together, they own the very popular Latin and ballroom school, Chicago Dance, where they and their staff teach dancers of all ages and levels, from beginner to advanced, in both private and group lessons. Now retired from active competition and performance, the two instruct and judge across the United States, train and test teachers throughout the Midwest, and work tirelessly to support the sport of ballroom dancing.

Dan Rutherford and Nicole Carroll are American Rhythm champions who have danced competitively together for ten years. Combined, they have won every major championship in the United States including the title of top overall professional couple. They have been featured performers on “America’s Ballroom Challenge” as seen on PBS in February 2007 and most recently, they have been invited to perform in the results show for this season’s “Dancing with the Stars”. Dan and Nicole train many of the top professional and amateur couples in United States in the American Rhythm and International Latin divisions. They each hold their fellowship degrees in all 4 styles of dance, are members of DVIDA, the North American Dance Teachers Association, and Fred Astaire’s national dance board. Individually, Dan’s background consists of jazz and Latin dancing while Nicole’s background is gymnastics prior to ballroom and Latin dancing.

Chris Ford is a certified adjudicator with the National Dance Council of America and has 26 years of experience as a teacher and competitor. Chris is a finalist in the United States in American Smooth and winner of several championships across the United States.

Heidi Lucky and her husband Norm are dancers who are involved in many facets of the dance industry. They are award winning competitors, teachers, choreographers and entertainers. They have appeared on television and have had the pleasure of appearing with Dolly Parton and James Wood in the movie “Straight Talk”. For years they have been a part of the Patty Waszak show, called “a bit of Branson”, which has performed many times at the White Fence Farm in Joliet. This year they will perform over 300 shows in the Chicagoland area alone. Their greatest pleasure is seeing the enjoyment on the faces of the people they perform for. Heidi has also been the Mistress of Ceremonies for many events including the Indiana Challenge, the Great Race, Cleveland’s North Coast Classic, and the Chicago Harvest Moon Championship.

Mark Tabor was introduced to ballroom dancing in 1993 and soon became involved in competition and is still an active competitor. Since the year 2000 he has been lead organizer for 18 chapter competitions and four Northwest Regional Championships. Throughout this experience, he developed the O2CM system for dancesport competition management. He is the organizer for the NorthWest DanceSport Championships 2003-2007, the developer of the O2CM system, and is a NDCA certified scrutineer.

Jack Meinking has been providing music for DanceSport Competitions since 1972. He is currently a registered NDCA Music Director from Cincinnati, OH and provides music for approximately one dozen NDCA Competitions each year, including the Ohio Star Ball, St. Louis Star Ball, Atlanta Open, New Jersey State Open, American Star Ball, Heart of America, and the Cincinnati Dancesport Competition. He has been the music director for a number of USABDA/USA Dance competitions including past National Championships in Indianapolis, Houston, and Florida. Besides competitions, he provides music for many regional USA Dance chapter dances and special events in Cincinnati, OH, Indianapolis, IN, Lexington, KY, Louisville, KY, and South Bend, IN.
